Quadna Mountain Park Announces Test, Tune, and Practice

Hill City, MN - Quadna Mountain Park is officially kicking off winter with its test, tune, and practice schedule. QMP will be open for practice Monday November 14, 2011 through Wednesday November 23, 2011. With 11 Snow Guns, 4 Groomers and 100 miles of water hose, we are chomping at the bit to hit the switch and let the snow fly! It get's even better, who said there's no such thing as a FREE lunch! QMP will be having a FREE lunch with practice on the weekend of November 19th and 20th. Were not done yet... QMP is hosting the Quadna Mountain Blast Race on December 3-4, 2011. In preparation for this event, QMP will be open for practice Monday November 28th through December 2nd. FREE trailer parking all week as QMP is making an effort to help cut down on fuel and travel costs. With a great track, FREE parking and excellent practice conditions for all skill levels. Why go home after the Duluth National? Come join the snocross racing family for a weeklong test, tune, and practice session and show your progress at the Quadna Mountain Blast Race.
